Introducing Dr. AC Brown

Eleanor Thought She Had Security

Dr. AC Brown knew this lady named Eleanor. One day he said to Eleanor, "Why don't you learn how to do something else while you have that good job." He was not criticizing her employment, he was just stating a fact of life. He have been dealing with the business world in so many fields, in fact, he has been into several fields and in each filed he made millions in each field, that is why he was saying to Eleanor, to learn how to do something else while she had that good job.

Listen very carefully to what Eleanor said to AC brown. "AC I am doing alright, I have a good job. I get sick leave, vacation with pay and I am working on my retirement. Furthermore, my supervisor cannot do without me." One year later, he was back visiting Eleanor.

As he entered her home, he noticed that she was standing there with her back to me. As he sat down to eat breakfast she was washing the dishes, he said, "Eleanor, how many vacation days are you getting this year?" There was complete silence. As she turned around he noticed her eyes were filled with tears.

She said, “AC I was laid off. I haven’t even told the children yet. I got my last check Friday. I been on the job for 12 years. My mortgage payment is due on the first of the month and my car payment is due on the tenth. How could they do this to me? And Frankie who is planning to graduate from high school this year. He has big plans for college next year.”

He was so chocked up he couldn’t say very much. He got up from the table and he put my arms around her as he tried to find words to consul her. Driving back to Atlanta, he couldn’t help but think about the sick leave, the vacation leave with pay, the supervisor who couldn’t do without her, and most importantly, Frankie who is expecting to go to college next year, what about it?

Ladies and gentlemen, if Eleanor had just taken time out while she had that good job, to learn how to do something God’s way, that day when that supervisor brought that last check, then all she had to do was to look at him and mentally say, I have nothing to fear because I have prepared myself, by doing the Pathway to Success every day, following the habits of Jesus and living life God’s way.
