In the Matthew 13 passage when Jesus says that Angels will gather the tares, this means: Angels, Pastors, Congregation, and the Saints.

“And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful. And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.”

The Mystery of the Wheat and the Tares – 8. (Matthew 13:24-30) Please read Part One, 15 October 2008. Please touch your eyes and ask Christ to allow you to see and understand what you are about to read and allow the Holy Spirit to teach you what it all means. Listen carefully as the antichrist does not want you to know or understand this information.

There are three concepts of which to be mindful when considering tares in the church environment:

- 1) Tares are the enemy standing right beside you.
- 2) Tares are like moths drawn to a flame.
- 3) Tares are not going to sit passively at the end.

NOT PASSIVE AT THE END

“Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field. He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man; The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one; The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels. As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.” Matthew 13:36-43 (KJ)

Two things to note: 1) In the above scripture, the word “Angel” according to Strong’s—angel, (probably derived from G71; compare G34; to bring tiding); a messenger; especially an “angel”; by implication a pastor; -- angel, messenger. 2) It is important to understand that we are living presently in Revelation and therefore should be keenly sensitive to and aware of spirituality and spiritual things, spiritual events and look for the movement of the Holy Spirit in our daily lives and routines.

As we fast approach our Lord's Coming, please know that Tribulation will be fast on His Heels and in my estimation we will be so close to Tribulation that many will think we are in it, though it will not be upon us at that time. What I am attempting to express is that there will be enough going on in our lives and around the world, just to survive, some may dismiss our Lord's Coming as something that It is not.

In any event, after the Rapture and during Tribulation, the tares should be in rare form, meaning—they will be more vigilant in their causes—destroying the things of Father God. And be sure before their demise, before they are taken by the Angels at the end of Tribulation, they will be on the offensive. But rest assured they will not go quietly; they will go kicking and screaming to their judgment.

Let me ask you a serious question. Do you want to go screaming and kicking into hell or skipping and laughing into Heaven? The choice is yours. “So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.” Matthew 13:49-51 (KJ)
